SWEEPING RUSSIANS BACK

Reported That They Have Been Driven Back To Last Line of Defense At Port Arthur.

Washington, Aug. 4.—The Japanese legation has received the following from Tokio:
Admiral Oku reports that the enemy has been retreating continuously since August second. On August third our army occupied Haicheng and Newchwang which is thirty miles northeast of the port of the same name.

UNEASY FEELING PREVAILS.

Reports from St. Petersburg Are Not Very Assuring.

Birmingham, Aug. 4.—The Post today states that a messenger arrived in London Monday from St. Petersburg with despatches and autograph letters from the Czar to King Edward. The letter was taken to the king who is at Cowes. The despatches were read and discussed by the cabinet who held a meeting yesterday, and another messenger left London yesterday for St. Petersburg.
The negotiations which are proceeding, the Post says, are quite apart from the questions arising from the passage of the Dardanelles by the Russian Volunteer Fleet, and that the letter from the Czar came in this connection. Meanwhile people from St. Petersburg give gloomy accounts of affairs in the Russian capital, stating that there is a feeling of terror and insecurity in many quarters there, which has never before been equalled even in Russia.

CHASING FOREIGN SHIPS.

Russian Cruiser Is After Contraband of War.

London, Aug. 4.—A St. Petersburg despatch to the Central News says that the Russian auxiliary cruiser Donrass has left the Baltic Sea fleet in pursuit of one British and two Swedish vessels believed to be carrying five submarine and seven torpedo boats in sections, to Japan.

Elopement From House Point.

Rouses Point, N. Y., Aug. 3.—George Weston created a sensation last night by eloping with Mrs. Keenan, housekeeper for the late S. Bullis Weston. They bought tickets for St. Louis by way of Montreal. Mrs. Keenan has not lived with her husband for nearly five years.

THE FERRONNIERE.

An Ornament That Probably Dates Back to Remote Antiquity.

A ferronniere was a band or chain round the head, holding a jewel in the center of the forehead. The last instance of its being in fashionable use was furnished by American early in the nineteenth century. Mrs. Earle, the historian of transatlantic costume, vouches for this curious survival.
This ornament is known to have been popular in Europe in the sixteenth century, and in the east it could probably be traced back to remote antiquity.
Biblical students know that the Jews, following a custom of the ancient Egyptians, often adopted this method of wearing their phylacteries, or front-lets, between their eyes.

The modern application of the name is, according to Mrs. Earle, obscure, but there does not appear to be much doubt about the matter. One of the pictures of Leonardo da Vinci goes by the name of "La Belle Ferronniere." It would seem to be a portrait of Lucrezia Civelli, a favorite of Ludovico Sforza, and, as the lady is depicted wearing one of these ornaments, it is clear that the name owes its revival to this picture.—London Standard.

An Odd Swimming Contest.

Sir John Pakington, a courtier of Queen Elizabeth, was a reckless "layer of wagers. He once bet £3,000 that he would swim the Thames from the bridge at Westminster to the bridge at Greenwich faster than three relays of young noblemen. Sir John won this bet. The relays of noblemen, though they swam hard, were badly beaten.
The queen was present at the race, and to the losers she gave, by way of a consolation prize, a butt of sack.

A Venus.

Sister—You had told me her name, yet I know no more than I did before.
Is she beautiful? Brother—Beautiful?
Why, she could make even the present fashions look artistic.—New York Weekly.

Knew by the Question.

"Doctor," said the patient, entering the office with a most ingenuous expression, "how does a man feel that has indigestion?" Doctor—You haven't got it!—New York Press.

BUYING MARBLE QUARRIES.

Vermont Marble Company Expends $60,000 For One.

Rutland, Aug. 3.—The Belden's Falls marble property and water power controlled by Mr. Worthy and son of Chicago on which George C. Underhill of this city recently obtained an option, subject to another lease, has just passed into the hands of the Vermont Marble Company.
It is understood that the stipulated price for the property was $60,000. It consists of a magnificent water fall, a marble working plant, including mills and finishing shops and a number of workmen's cottages.

There are indications that the Belden's Falls transfer is only one of a number of important marble deals in prospect.

A HAPPY REUNION.

Brothers Hadn't Seen Each Other For 33 Years.

Burlington, Aug. 4.—Of the thousands who witnessed the big circus yesterday none were more delighted than two old gentlemen to whom this pleasure came in each other's company, for the first time in their lives. They were two brothers and they had not seen each other before in 33 years. They were I. L. Hill of New York and S. C. Hill of Johnson. They related how their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Warren Hill were early settlers of Plainfield where I. L. Hill was born 79 years ago.

FARM FOR BAPTIST CHURCH.

Enosburg Falls Society Now Owns Three-Thirds Gift of Hiram Ladd.

Enosburg Falls, Aug. 3.—The Free Baptist church in this place has just completed its purchase of a farm, having received the gift of three fourths of the property from Hiram Ladd, and the late Nathan Kendall and now Hiram Ladd, for many years town treasurer, has deeded the farm in Berkshire known as the "Caleb Libbey farm" to the society.
The transfer has been made and the society's agent, A. W. Woodworth, has assumed control.

BASE BALL NOTES.

The Rutland fans were anxious to see Sheldon "put them over." They saw him to their hearts' content yesterday.

The Rutland directors have elected Lieut. Wait C. Johnson manager of their team. The position was offered Mr.
Johnson earlier in the season but was not accepted.

The Free Press says that Jack Campbell will join the Barre-Montpelier team; also that a Toledo, Ohio, pitcher has jumped his contract and has been signed by the same team.

Pitcher Hoar, recently released by Rutland as not fast enough for Northern league company, has been welcomed with open arms to his old berth in Manchester.
N. H., in the New England league.

It is stated that Conkey will cease from troubling the Northern league batters with his cannon balls this week. His final game is scheduled for Friday when he will endeavor to make himself remembered by the things Burlington will be unable to do.
Rutland Herald. His "cannon balls" didn't trouble us so much as his talk and actions.

Thus glooms away the Rutland correspondent to the Burlington Free Press: The sorry spectacle of nine lusty young men pitilessly and remorselessly made game of by nine others in a lopsided and entirely uninteresting game of base ball was that close to 1,000 fans paid their good coin for today, when Rutland was beaten by the Montpelier-Barre crowd by the score of 6 to 1. There was hardly a single ray of brightness during the entire exhibition and the fact that the locals were outclassed in every point of the game was evident from the start.

Of course the following notice, published by the directors of the Norwich, N. Y., base ball association, has no application to the Hyphens: "If the young ladies who are helping to entertain the members of the team have the best interests of the nine at heart, they will deny themselves and send the boys home early. This is particularly necessary this week, as the team has five hard games ahead. We don't want to shut down on this entirely for we realize how the boys feel about it when they are with the girls, but unless something is done we shall have to go out of business. So its up to the girls to show their patriotism and see that the boys get their sleep."

POPE PIUS X'S
ANNIVERSARYHead Of Catholic Church
One Year

IS SICK OF WRANGLINGS

Congratulatory Messages Are Received From Almost All Heads of European States.

Rome, Aug. 4.—The first anniversary of Pope Pius X to the chair of St. Peter was observed at the Vatican today. Early this morning His Holiness celebrated high mass, after which he received his immediate entourage in audience. He declared himself to be tired and almost sick of political wrangling, with which he has had to contend since election to the head of the church.
Congratulatory telegrams were received from the heads of nearly all the European states. It is stated that the number of private telegrams received today is much less than half those received by Pope Leo XIII on the occasion of the celebration of his elevation to the papacy.

ROOSEVELT MAY COME.

Told Bell If Vermont Gives Him 40,000 Majority He Would.

St. Johnsbury, Aug. 3.—President James F. Hooker of the Republican League met members of the town committee in Caledonia county Tuesday afternoon and outlined the campaign for getting out a failure in September. Candidate C. J. Bell urged the importance of personal work and said President Roosevelt told him in Washington Saturday that he wanted to see a big vote here in September and added that if he carried the State by 40,000 majority he would attend Governor Bell's inauguration.

BARRE-MONTEPELIER WON

Visitors Scored Six Times, Hitting O'Brien Freely and Home Team Crossed Plate Once.

Rutland, Aug. 4.—Sheldon, the "boy wonder," was too much for the Duff bunch yesterday, while O'Brien was freely hit at opportune times. Six of the Hyphens crossed the rubber, while only one Rutland man found his way around. The home team did not have a ghost of a chance to win against Barre-Montpelier with Sheldon in the box. All that they could do with the visiting twirler was four scattered hits, while four of them struck out. Sheldon was also very steady, giving one base on balls. He also hit the ball himself, getting two safe ones, including a double. O'Brien for Rutland was touched up for eight hits which would win most any game. Capt. Morgan of the visitors added materially to O'Brien's discomfiture by rapping out three safe drives.

The Barre-Montpelier team outplayed the home team who played as if they expected defeat, as well as the crowd.
Hafford at short had more work out for him than he could do and slipped up twice in a fashion that was costly. On the other hand the visitors supported their pitcher magnificently, the only error being credited to Burke on first base.
The home team was allowed a hit on O'Hara's drive which Stewart misjudged, and there was no error.

The home team's solitary tally was made in the fourth, and they were grateful for that. After Stewart had misjudged O'Hara's fly and the runner had taken second, Brown hit Sheldon who retired the runner at first but O'Hara went to third. Duff then sent out a long fly to center and O'Hara scored on the out.
There was nothing more doing, however, as Morgan gathered in Robertson's fly.
Barre-Montpelier scored twice in each of the first, third and eighth innings with ease and in the eighth gave a pretty exhibition of timely hitting. Capt. Morgan got a single and promptly stole second.
Dorman came to time with a single, scoring Morgan. McEnany advanced Dorman with a sacrifice, and after Burke was hit with the ball, Sheldon let out with a two bagger, sending Dorman across the pan.

defeated St. Albans yesterday morning at

A PRETTY HOME WEDDING.

Susanne Cummings and Ralph E. Wales United in Marriage.

A quiet but pretty home wedding was performed last evening at the residence of the Rev. and Mrs. E. W. Cummings on Jefferson street when their daughter, Sus-sane Ellsworth, was united in marriage to Ralph Emerson Wales of South Barre.
The ceremony was performed by the bride's father at 8.30 o'clock in the reception room which was prettily decorated with golden rods and ferns.

The bride was gown in cream wool chiffon with pearl trimming and carried a bouquet of white sweet peas. She was attended by her sister, Miss Meta R.
Cummings, who was dressed in blue green silk mull. William Cole, Jr., acted as groomsman. A wedding march was played by Miss Lillian Gordon. Only the immediate friends and relatives were present, and after the ceremony a short reception was held and a wedding collation was served. Mr. and Mrs. Wales were the recipients of many very beautiful presents.

The bride is a very popular and accomplished young lady of this city and both have a wide circle of friends who wish them happiness through life. The newly wedded couple left last night for a two weeks' tour in Massachusetts and Connecticut, and on their return will reside at 39 Jefferson street. The groom is employed by William Cole & Sons granite company.

THE PETRIFIED BODY.

Crowds of People Flocking to Washington To See It.

Crowds of people are flocking to the Clough farm in Washington daily to see the petrified body which was found there last week. The body was found in some quicksand by workmen who were making a small fish pond in the field just above Huntington's mills.

The figure is about six feet long and is very brittle. It has a very peculiarly shaped head, the forehead being very low and the back of the head quite high. The cheek bones are very high and for this reason it is thought that the figure is that of an Indian buried more than a century ago.

Mr. Clough has decided to have the entire on exhibition at the fair this fall. Pictures of the figure are already being sold as fast as they can be made.

Sparring in K. W. Moran's Suit.

Manchester, N. H., Aug. 4.—Continuous and spirited sparring between counsel depositions of George Franklin Willey in the action of Kimball W. Morse of Barre, Vt., against James B. Tennant and others, directors of the Corson Gold Mining company, begun by Attorney Oliver E.

Branch at his office yesterday.
